

COVENANT CLASSICAL SCHOOL
IN ALL THINGS CHRIST PREEMINENT

June 28, 2018

Dear Families,

We finalized our selections with Lands' End and found a solution for our plaid next year! It was important to find a plaid option that maintained our school colors, because it affects all of our uniform selections, athletic uniforms, Spirit Wear, and marketing.

Thank you for your patience as Lands' End worked out an option with their merchandising team and upper management that would serve our school well. The plaid we agreed to is similar to Parker, but with deeper colors. Only the plaid jumper will be available for immediate purchase. The plaid skirts require custom manufacturing and will be available later in the school year, likely December or January.

Based on parent suggestions and student feedback, and availability of items through Lands' End, we have taken this opportunity to make changes in our Dress Code. Attached to this letter you will see our updated Dress Code along with uniform changes going forward with Lands' End. Some important changes include:

- All K-12 students wear solid white or gray tennis shoes, or a mix of white and gray, with white or gray shoe laces for daily uniforms. No other colors should be a part of the shoe design. Any color tennis shoes may be worn on Spirit Wear days. Students in grades 7-12 may also wear tan or brown deck shoes (e.g. Sperry) during the week.
- All K-12 students wear white ankle or "no show" socks with tennis shoes for daily uniform. Any color ankle or "no show" sock may be worn on Spirit Wear days.
- All boys K-12 wear navy pants with a white, long sleeve, Oxford shirt for dress uniform.
- All boys K-12 can wear navy or khaki pants and shorts for daily uniform.
- Boys 7-12 wear brown dress shoes, not deck shoes (e.g. Sperry), with their dress uniform.
- Boys 11-12 wear gray blazers and ties in addition to their standard dress uniform.
- All girls K-12 wear plaid skirts for dress uniform. Girls in grades 7-12 have a new option to wear a plaid skirt during the week, and K-6 girls have a new option to wear a navy skirt during the week.
- Girls K-6 wear a white knitted Peter Pan Polo or white Interlock Polo during the week. The Peter Pan Polo will double as a dress uniform shirt.
- Girls K-4 wear white, cabled knee socks and black Mary Jane style shoes (with a strap, no heel) for dress uniform, and girls 5-12 wear black ballet flats for dress uniform.
- Girls 7-12 wear a long-sleeve, no gape, white shirt, tucked in for dress uniform.

For 2018-19 only, Parker uniform items that comply with the selections listed on the new dress code can be worn on daily uniform days. For example, the Parker dress uniform sailor shirt (midi blouse) with a plaid tie for grammar girls will no longer be a part of our Dress Code, but grammar girls can continue to wear the Parker broadcloth Peter Pan shirts as those remain on the dress code (the same style comes in a more opaque knitted fabric with Lands' End). Another example is that 6th grade girls will no longer be allowed to wear navy and maroon polos or khaki skirts until 7th grade, but students in 7-12 may wear Parker polos, shorts, and pants for one more year. Plaid jumpers and all skirts from Parker may be worn another year. Most outerwear items have been permanently grandfathered into our Dress Code.

For this school year, every student is required to have a dress uniform from Lands' End. Our first dress uniform day at school will be September 26th. Since the plaid skirt production will be delayed, we are asking that all K-12 girls have a Lands' End navy box-pleat skirt to sub for the plaid skirt on dress uniform days. The navy skirt will sub for the plaid skirt, until the plaid skirt becomes available for purchase. At that time, the navy skirt can continue to be worn for daily uniforms for all K-12 girls, but no longer for dress uniform. We will announce when ordering for the plaid skirt becomes available and the date our official dress uniform for girls will be required. There is a tall sizing option for all skirts that will ensure skirts are an appropriate length (2 inches above the knee).

To get started, you can shop our Lands' End uniform items online, over the phone, or in-store at Sears.
