

Covenant Classical School Portrait of a Graduate

Portrait of a Graduate A Student who:	School-wide Goals The student will:
Loves God with all his heart, soul, and mind	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Be equipped with a knowledge of God - Seek to know the heart of Christ and be transformed into His likeness - Understand his place in God’s narrative of history - Recognize, honor, and submit to God’s authority - Treasure, appreciate, and uphold what is true, good, and beautiful - Understand and love God’s Word
Loves others	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dignify and respect all people - Actively serve his church and community - Pursue servant-leadership in vocation, family, and community - Speak words of truth and hope to others - Honor authority in thought, word, and deed - Protect the weak and oppressed
Loves learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Embrace challenging subjects and topics - Exhibit excellence in academic pursuits - Pursue learning and truth throughout his lifetime - Read carefully and critically - Delight in the written and spoken word
Reasons wisely	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Listen carefully and discerningly - Think clearly, precisely, and creatively - Embody and practice discernment - Understand the relationship between faith and learning - Evaluate worldly wisdom and truth according to biblical wisdom - View every subject as integrated in and through Christ
Engages and influences culture with a Christ-centered worldview	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand that Christ is preeminent over all creation - Apply Christian worldview principles to everyday life - Articulate and defend his faith persuasively and humbly - Critique and create culture for the sake of expanding Christ’s kingdom
Utilizes the tools of learning, thinking, and expressing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Write and speak articulately, eloquently, and persuasively - Be versed in the rich tradition of the liberal arts in order to think critically and clearly about all of life - Employ the tools contained within the liberal arts and sciences - Participate in the “Great Conversation” through familiarity with the “Great Books” - Understand the progressions of Western thought through the study of theology, philosophy, and literature - Learn and think independently
Embodies virtue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Understand that virtue is Spirit-led as a result of God’s grace - Demonstrate genuine fruit of the Spirit - Live and speak in a manner seasoned with grace and humility - Pursue appropriate decorum in speech, attitude, and demeanor - Pursue physical fitness and discipline
Delights in beauty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Discern and love beauty as manifested in creation and the arts - Possess aesthetic sensibilities that lead to worship and delight in God’s glory - Make aesthetic judgments about art that reflect a biblical worldview